Foreword

Life is a book in which each of us records his ambitions and disappointments, his hopes and fears, his successes and failures.

Within the covers of this annual the staff has attempted to capture, in word and in picture, important events of our high school career as well as the organizations and persons who have aided us in building well-rounded personalities with which to face our present-day world. It is our purpose to aid you in recalling vividly in later years the many happy hours spent at work and play at Libbey High School.

MR. KIEFER

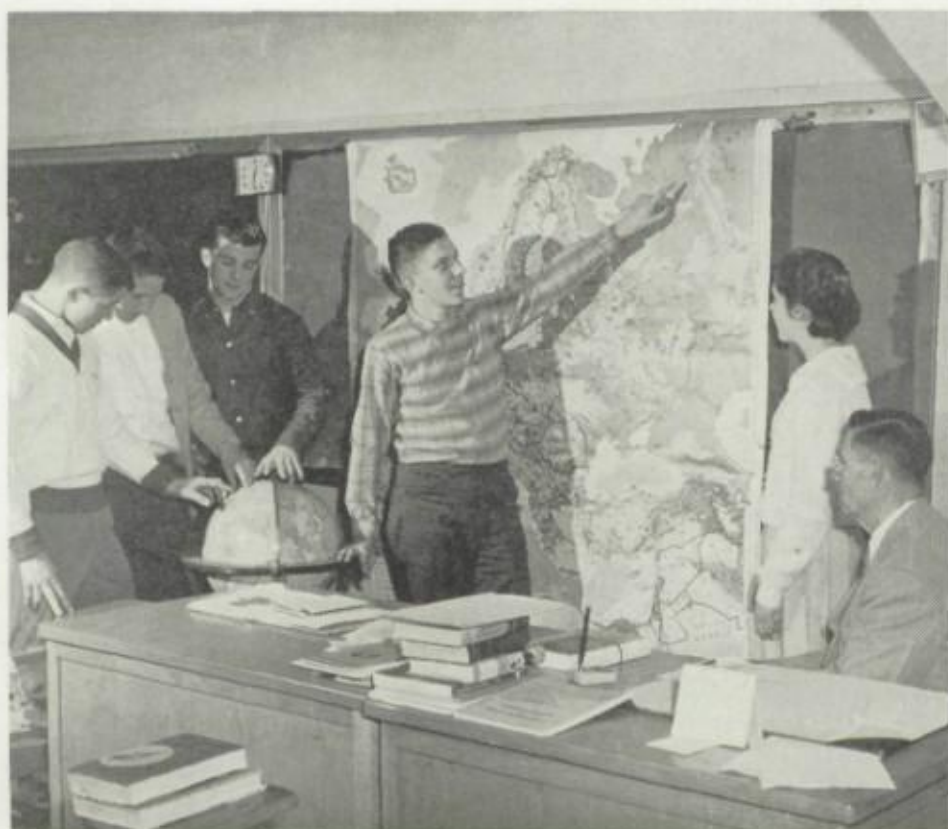

Devotion to a pattern of living that is based upon a love of God, a sense of responsibility, and a desire to be of service to others is the keynote of Mr. Kiefer's life. In order to prepare for a life of serving others through teaching, Mr. Kiefer earned his B. of Ed. degree from Illinois State Normal University and his M.A. degree from St. Louis University.

Climaxing his many years of summer travel, Mr. Kiefer and his wife in 1958 visited Hawaii where they enrolled in graduate courses at the University of Honolulu. The combined efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Kiefer cover ninety-one years of teaching the youth of Toledo—a laudable record indeed.

In addition to being a fine teacher during his years at Libbey, Mr. Kiefer has found time to lead the students in their extracurricular activities. The plaque he received from the Hi-Y when he retired as their adviser is a cherished memento of his twenty-nine years of service. Libbey could never have a more loyal booster than Mr. Kiefer who, from the beginning of Libbey's football history, attended every game until his illness last year. We sincerely appreciate his steadfast loyalty and support.

Mr. Kiefer's life of service is not limited to Libbey but spreads to his personal life as well. As an active member of Park Congregational Church, he has been a valued and respected Sunday school teacher. An example of his deeply religious attitude toward life is his annual practice of reading the Bible from Genesis to Revelation. To our "au revoir" and "good luck" we wish to add our "thank you" and "God bless you." Thus, with respect and admiration, the Senior Class of 1960 dedicated this volume of the Edelian to our friend and teacher, Mr. George L. Kiefer.

Dedication

A zest for living, an enthusiasm for the profession, and an educational background enriched by travel have made Mr. Packer an integral part of our school's success. Mr. Packer, a member of the educational fraternity Phi Delta Kappa, received his B.A. in Ed. from Toledo University and his M.A. in guidance and psychology from Ohio State University.

Satisfying his desire to travel, Mr. Packer, accompanied by his wife who teaches Commercial Art at Waite High School, has traveled to the Caribbean Islands, to all but three of our states, to Mexico twice, and to Europe six times. Always broadening the horizons of his life, in 1950 he made a tour around the world by freighter and repeated this pleasant experience by plane in 1957. Endeavoring to share these happy moments and exotic experiences with others, Mr. Packer extended his teaching beyond the halls of Libbey to the University of Toledo where he gave accredited and illustrated lectures on his travels.

In addition to his success here at Libbey as an instructor in drafting, Mr. Packer has designed since 1926 more than a hundred small homes and buildings in Toledo. A valuable contribution to our city was his plan for the Trail Medical Center. His great knowledge of architecture has been shared with others in many articles and lectures throughout his career.

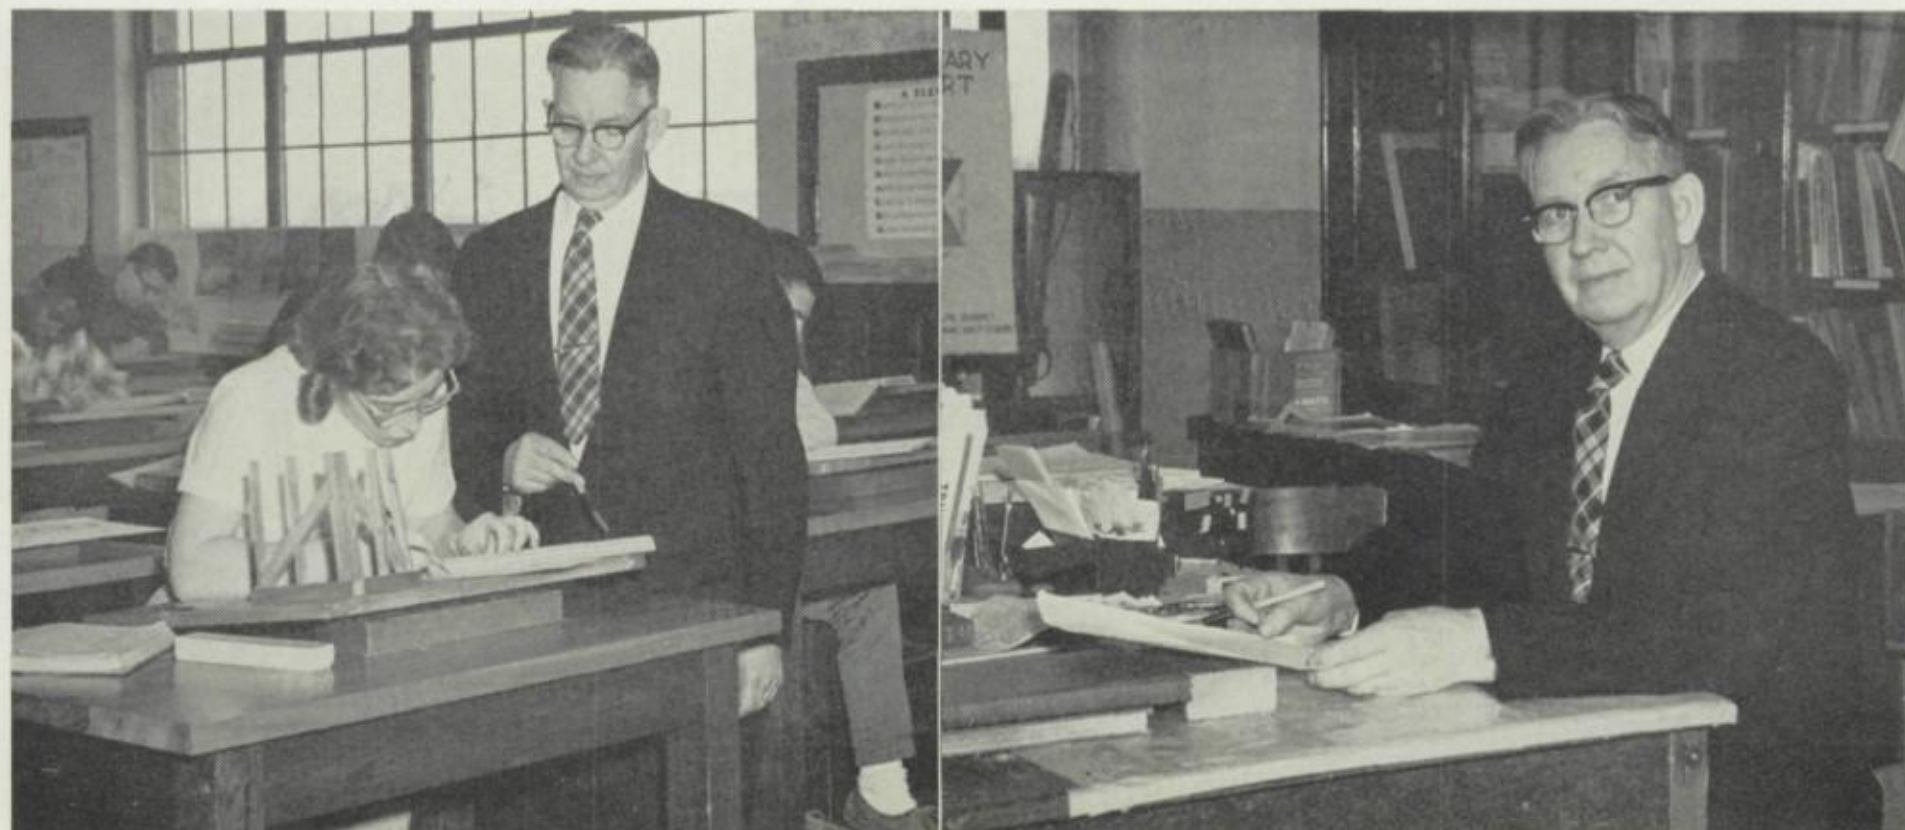

Distinguishing Mr. Packer from the other men on the Libbey faculty is the fact that he is the last to retire among those who were here when Libbey first opened its doors. During his thirty-seven years as a teacher at Libbey he has proved his tremendous versatility and willingness to serve.

The students at Libbey who for many years benefited from Mr. Packer's vast knowledge and experience are truly appreciative of his loyal service and extend to him many wishes for future happiness. Recognizing his myriad talents and achievements at school and at the First Presbyterian Church in Maumee, we, the Senior Class of 1960, are proud to dedicate this edition of the Edelian to our respected teacher, Mr. Edward Packer.

PHILO C. DUNSMORE
Superintendent

In this age of scientific achievement, more demands are being brought to bear on the public school system than ever before. To meet the challenge of our changing world, our superintendent, Mr. Philo C. Dunsmore, for the past two years and a half has administered the Toledo schools with prudence and forethought. By expanding the educational facilities of our community he has demonstrated the providence of his energetic leadership. Because we have faith in his judgment and wisdom, we extend to him our pledge of loyalty and cooperation in all projects he may enter upon to improve the social and educational status of our school system. For his scholastic achievements in our behalf, we, the graduating class of Libbey High School, wish to express our appreciation and esteem.

Members of the Toledo Board of Education: Left to right, Mr. Thomas Bretherton, Mr. Raymond Baldwin, Mrs. Jane Kuebbeler, president; Mr. Grant Murray, Dr. Frank Brown.

Mr. Rusie's gracious personality and his enduring loyalty to Libbey will have a lasting effect upon our lives; for his sincerity and friendliness have impressed us with some idea of the nobility of character possessed by a great man and, even more, a gentleman. No matter what pressing problems are on his busy schedule, Mr. Rusie, with his characteristic good humor, is never too busy to listen to our urgent problems, applaud our triumphs, or greet us with a reassuring smile. Whether he is congratulating a top scholar or arousing the football team to greater efforts, Libbey is always foremost in his thoughts. For his fairness, patience, and interest in our every problem, we, the graduating class of 1960, proudly salute our sincere and beloved principal.

LOY W. RUSIE
Principal

Mr. Rusie confers with the officers of the Student Council: Gary McLargin, sergeant-at-arms; Sue West, secretary-treasurer; Ron Curtis, vice-president; and John Petterson, president.

In Memoriam

Miss Grace M. DeLisle

In our hearts will long remain fond memories of Miss Grace DeLisle, who since 1926 devoted her training and talents to the enrichment of the lives of the students at Libbey. She was always loyal to the principles of our school and enthusiastic in the performance of all her educational duties. To her many students she imparted her high ideals, an understanding of American and English literature, and an appreciation of the many foreign countries which she visited. All who knew her revered and loved her for the enthusiasm, consideration, and integrity which she manifested. Her willingness to aid others and to give unselfishly of her time has set an example for us in the years ahead. By devoting her life to the advancement of the education of the youth of our community, she achieved life's highest goal and pleasure, service to others.

"To live in the hearts one leaves behind is not to die."

Mrs. Black, who recently retired, gives helpful hints on English.

Now, let's discuss this!

Teaching also has its lighter side.

The faculty family has a get-together.

We greatly miss May's smile that has characterized many years of diligent service and brightened the day for both students and teachers alike.

Shall we call it excused?

Many and varying moods are expressed on the faces of the faculty at the Christmas party.

Giving to Libbey a distinct personality are the students who study, learn, and achieve within these walls. Each class has its own traits and mores which impart to its members a distinct individuality; yet it is this symbiotic relationship that gives Libbey its pulse and its heartbeat. To the freshman, eager and naive, Libbey has just begun to be more than a symbol. For the enthusiastic sophomores, high school classes are rapidly becoming an integral part of life. To the sophisticated juniors, whose class rings symbolize their growth and maturity, knowledge and culture have become accepted worthwhile goals. For the seniors, who, exuberant yet doleful, cannot halt the progress towards the termination of their careers at Libbey, the memories of former years are already becoming clouded with faint nostalgia.

Like all vast institutions, Libbey maintains its stability by the process of constant alteration and adaptation. We who are Libbey also change during our four years of pursuing knowledge, and these pages are the appropriate annals of our school life.

"Care to join us for dinner?—Olives, molasses, and corn-flakes!"
The hard-working Senior Play property committee takes time out to pose.
"Watch out! I swing a mean brush."

"Cheer up, kids! Things could be worse, I think."
Parting is such sweet sorrow.
"Watch that, Brenda!"
"It's the truth, I did see them!"

The feature attraction of the Roundup was our charming Rhythmettes.
Janet and Sharron finish their fourth year in the Roundup.
Ability and expressiveness go hand in hand.
Where did he go, Janet?

Lynne and Susie were the comic hit of the show with their "Goofus" act.
"There's no business like show business."
"Dream Along."
The stage reverberates with a rhythmic clatter.

In Memoriam

Many of us have fond memories of Theodore Blanks, who left us at such an inopportune moment in his young life. Well-liked by all those who knew him, Theodore participated in freshman football and looked forward to the time when he would become a member of the varsity. His teachers attest to his conscientiousness and his desire to do well in his school work. To his friends, relatives, and family, we express our deepest sympathy.

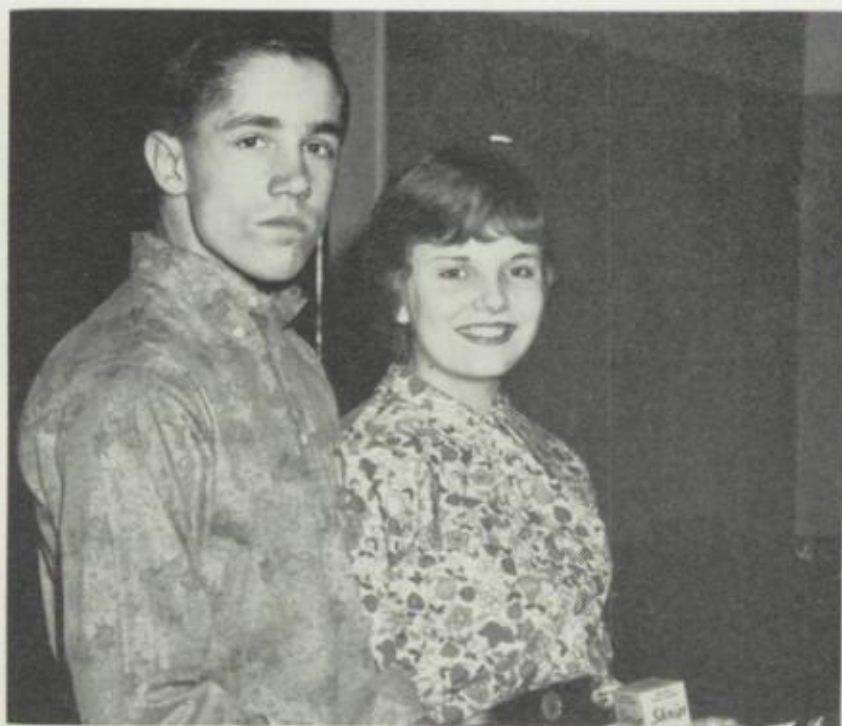

"Death's but a path that must be trod, if man would ever pass to God."—Thomas Parnell.

Activities

Not all of our most valuable lessons are learned in the classroom. Through the many activities sponsored by our school, our lives have been immeasurably enriched and broadened. Participation in these organizations whose emblems we have learned to revere and cherish has afforded us entertainment and enjoyment combined with training for tactful and considerate living. Cooperation, leadership, and good citizenship have been the outgrowth of sharing responsibilities in these organizations. Never will we forget the pleasures afforded by our social activities, but above all do we value the challenge and satisfaction of successfully sponsoring these projects. The emblems of the organizations through which we have been given the opportunity to serve and to grow in maturity and character will remain forever dear to our hearts.

Student Council

To be elected a representative of Libbey's student governing body is one of the honors and achievements most coveted by our classmates. By fostering interest in school activities, by promoting good citizenship and integrity, and by maintaining good relationship between the faculty and the student body, the Student Council truly fulfilled its purpose. Endeavoring to be of service, the Student Council sponsored a Clean-up Campaign, led Libbey in its first Safety Week program, and supervised the Football Queen election. Combining efforts with the student councils of other area schools, they also sponsored the annual Teen Against Polio Campaign. Among their popular and varied social activities were the spring roast, an enjoyable dance after a basketball game, and participation in the enchanting Area Student Council dance, "Blue Mist."

Our Student Council under the energizing leadership of the president, John Petterson, and the adviser, Miss Haney, has set a fine example of student conduct and character. As the senior members bid a fond farewell to their fellow representatives, they however feel assured they are leaving their responsibilities of leadership to persons who are well qualified to meet the challenge.

Edelian

Under the guidance of Mr. Loy Rusie, Mr. Charles Martin, and Mrs. Mary Miller, we, the members of the 1960 Edelian staff, present to you the culmination of many hours of diligent effort and painstaking concentration. Each member of the staff has earnestly endeavored to complete his particular section of the book and to do his part in planning layouts, writing copy, and checking galleys. Yet perhaps, our most difficult task was keeping our plans a secret. Memories of our experiences in selling advertisements, posing pictures, conceding to another's opinion, and meeting deadlines will abide forever in our hearts. With the anticipation of your acceptance of our efforts, the staff proudly presents the 1960 Edelian with the hope that these pages will recall for you memories of the happy days spent within the halls of Libbey.

Recording the everyday activities of our school and interpreting all aspects of school life have been the laudable accomplishments of our Crystal staff. This group of proficient reporters, working under the competent guidance of Mrs. Betty Bolger, has provided full and interesting coverage of all important student and school affairs. They not only portrayed the academic side of school life but also presented our social and athletic activities in the columns and pictures of the Crystal. The excellence of our newspaper has been proved by the awards which are presented annually by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association to the Crystal for superiority in various fields. We, at Libbey, are proud to have such a fine publication identified with our school.

Classical Honor Society

To stimulate interest and to recognize excellence in the study of Latin are the purposes of the Classical Honor Society. Membership in this club is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon any Latin student who has maintained for two consecutive semesters an "A" average and no grade lower than "B" thereafter. Under the stimulating direction of Mrs. Pauline E. Burton, students of the society are made aware of "the glory that was Greece and the grandeur that was Rome." This year the group devoted their efforts to the study and understanding of classical civilization. Following their usual tradition, Latin students gained valuable information from the trip to the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Junior Red Cross

This year the Junior Red Cross, under the able guidance of their adviser, Miss Virginia May, has capably fulfilled the motto, "We help others by serving." Among their various projects were the sending of gift boxes overseas and the donation of money for the needy of Toledo and the United States. All homerooms were enrolled in the worthy activity of supplying Red Cross boxes for the underprivileged children of Europe and Asia. The conscientious attitude of these members is indeed to be commended. Under the capable leadership of Marsha Dolby, president; Joan Brockbrader, vice president; Mary Pendleton, secretary; and Mary Jane Becker, treasurer; this year's activities were brought to a successful close.

National

The National Honor Society faithfully following its purpose, "to hold erect the flaming light of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light, to uphold the high ideals of life, to recognize its greatest values, and to serve loyally, faithfully, and unselfishly," also evinced its maturing influence on the students' social life. The activities of a highly successful year included a progressive dinner held during Christmas vacation and a pizza party at the home of Pete Morrison.

In conjunction with the members of the Waite National Honor Society, they conducted the National Honor Quiz Show first at Libbey, where our panel, consisting of Pete Morrison, Dave Osborn, Peg Bower, and Nancy Lange, was victorious; but again later in the year at Waite we were forced to yield our position. The Treasure Hunt show held in the spring, along with the quiz program, was presented to raise money for scholarships to be given to worthy senior members of the society.

In March, twenty-five juniors and forty seniors were elected to membership in the society on the basis of their performance in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. A reception honoring the new members was held in the library following the very impressive induction ceremony in the auditorium at which the society presented honor pins to outstanding sophomore scholars and certificates to freshmen for meritorious scholastic achievement. To help the underclassmen prepare to meet the ever rising standards of college entrance requirements, the club presented a program explaining the best procedure to be followed in order to qualify for entrance into college; representatives from industry, from college and high school faculties and from the respective student bodies presented their individual viewpoints.

The annual spring roast and the second yearly banquet brought to a close the social events of the year. Guiding the society in fulfilling its purpose was Miss Jean Gilbert, their capable adviser.

The 1960 activities of the Pericleans, as mirrored in their memories, cast a pleasing reflection. A year of diligent work and many projects again justified their motto, "Secundus nulli." Resplendent in their red jerkins, white blouses, and black skirts, the Peries could be seen selling mints, shakers, and hats for the Thanksgiving game. As sponsors of the DeVilbiss mass meeting, they gave the team a rousing send-off and intensified school loyalty and spirit by decorating the lobby in emblematic blue and gold. In November, the new members of the Periclean Literary Society were received into the club at an impressive induction, which was held at the Park Lane Hotel. A needy family's Christmas was brightened by a basket of food, and the main office glowed as a result of the Peries' decorations. The memory of this happy year, which included Tri-Lit activities, a city-wide Perie tea, and the formal banquet in May, will long glow in the heart of every Perie.

Philalethean Literary Society

The Phils, seeming to have the ability to make each year better than the preceding one, held an impressive candle light induction at the home of their president and sponsored the Central mass meeting and basketball dance. Attractively attired in their matching skirts, blouse, and vests, the Phils played an important role in the success of the Tri-Lit activities of the year. Among their philanthropic projects were sponsorship of the Senior Play, contributions to the Community Chest, collection of money for the Care packages, and granting a scholarship to a deserving senior Phil.

Perhaps the most important event to be recorded in the Phil's history this year was the ever-popular Sadie Hawkins' Day Dance, held on March 11. At the spring banquet the senior girls expressed their loyalty to the Phils and their regret in leaving; they found assurance, however, in the knowledge that their little sisters would uphold the high ideals and ambitions which have traditionally characterized the Philalethean Literary Society.

Zetalethean Literary Society

Adding another year's achievements to their already fine record, the Zets lived up to their motto, "Nihil sine labore," "nothing without work." Among their successful projects was the sale of ashtrays, name cards, Christmas socks, and stationery. The Yuletide spirit at Libbey was again enlivened by the display of the traditional wreath outside the building. With the cooperation of the Zets, the Tri-Lit activities including the roast, mass meeting, and the formal dance were made successes long to be remembered.

The Zet banquet instilled in the new members the desire to carry on the fine work of their big sisters. By far the most important event was the crowning of their chaplain, Rita Neal, as Homecoming Queen. Certainly a wonderful way of ending the year was the granting of a scholarship to further the education of one of the deserving Zets.

Forum

Recognizing the need for leadership at Libbey during these days of extended schedules, the members of the Forum took an active part in the life of the school. Rapidly becoming a tradition in school activities is the spaghetti dinner which was held again with great success this year. The proceeds of other projects such as selling Libbey badges and tags for the Woodward game helped to swell the funds in the Forum treasury, part of which went to a needy family at Christmas and part to a deserving senior as a scholarship. Linger long in the memory of those who attended were the sock hop after the Macomber basketball game, the semi-formal dance, and the spring roast, sponsored jointly with the Q.D.'s. The social activities of a busy and successful year drew to a close with the memorable senior banquet held in May at which the senior members were honored.

Quill and Dagger

Once again the members of the Q.D.'s maintained their pre-eminent standing among Libbey's literary societies by promoting friendship and school spirit. In pursuance of their objectives they helped inspire the football team to a victory over Scott by selling hats which were worn by all the students as an expression of steadfast loyalty and encouragement. Lucrative projects for the year included selling decals and holding their annual car wash. Combining efforts with the Forum, they made the Bi-Lit roast and Bi-Lit dance occasions that have become fond memories for all who attended. One of the events that contributed immeasurably to making this year such an unforgettable one was the spring banquet honoring seniors and announcing next year's leaders.

Dramatics Club

Under the capable leadership and accomplished guidance of Miss Angelia Costigan, the Dramatics Club experienced a year of several successful enterprises. The crowning achievement of this year's thespian endeavors was, of course, the senior play, "January Thaw." Likewise, the contribution of the Junior Class to the dramatic life of Libbey was the fun-loving play, "That Brewster Boy." By giving members practical experience in the interpretation and production of two plays, the Dramatics Club has fulfilled its purpose of promoting interest in the activities of the school and developing latent creative talents of the student body. Our classmates were thus encouraged to read and witness better plays, thereby promoting enthusiasm for drama in all its phases. A more than memorable year was concluded by the club's annual banquet.

Hi-Y

The members of the Hi-Y, whose club was founded in 1889, strove diligently to fulfill the purpose for which the club was organized. Through the many activities in which its members participated, the Hi-Y endeavored "to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the home, school, and community." Their successful year included parking cars for B.I.E. day, assisting in the sale of newspapers for the Old Newsboys, and selling wreaths at Christmas and programs at the Central football game. Combining efforts with the Senior Y-Teens, the Hi-Y helped to sponsor the Lenten services which proved an inspiring influence in our school life. Also included among their activities were two swimming parties, a hayride, and a trip to the "Windy City," Chicago, during Christmas vacation. All these activities, plus selling tags for the Scott basketball game, spending a weekend at Camp Storer, and participating in a basketball league with other Hi-Y's of the city, made this a prosperous and eventful year long to be remembered.

Senior

This year the Senior Y-Teens again brought their activities to a successful close. Faithfully they adhered to their motto, "to grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

In spite of the early hour of the extended schedule, the girls had a breakfast meeting before school in November; at a later date they invited the Sophomore and Junior Y-Teens to enjoy with them a talk by Mr. Miley concerning football. Service projects to the school included decorating the lobby with two remarks of Rev. Stover and the entertainment provided by the members. City-wide events such as the carnival, the Bermuda hop, and the formal dance were indeed unforgettable occasions.

Under the warm and friendly guidance of Miss Allen and the officers, the Senior Y-Teens were guided in a year of activities long to be remembered. The officers were Joan Allen, president; Bobbie Patton, vice president; Carole Haase, secretary; Judy Clark, treasurer; and Bobbie Corwin, chaplain.

Libbey Christian Youth

The newly organized Bible Club, under the stabilizing guidance of Mr. Elmer F. Kirsh, was able this year to establish high standards of moral character, sincere respect for others, and a love of God; these are the qualities which have traditionally epitomized the real meaning of the Bible Club. Christian service to their fellow men has always been one of the ultimate and laudable goals of these student members.

We feel confident that the precepts studied by these devoted students will always serve as an example to inspire the student body and so illumine the lives of everyone concerned. The officers serving the club this year were Paul DeLamater, president; Larry Farnham, vice-president and chaplain; and Sharon Perry, secretary-treasurer.

Junior Y-Teens

The program followed this year by the Junior Y-Teens was one of enjoyment and service to others. Under the guidance of their capable adviser, Mrs. Jean Pritchard, the Junior Y-Teens were stimulated "to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities and to grow in the knowledge and love of God." The girls enjoyed a profitable year filled with hard work and social activities. In November the Y-Teens held a successful splash party at the Y.W.C.A. for all members who wished to attend. As a Christmas project they filled a basket of food for a needy Toledo family, and to in-

Sophomore Y-Teens

The industrious Sophomore Y-Teens, with the assistance of their active advisers, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Foose, started the year with a frenzy of activity. Their projects included many services to the school and varied social activities. The Y-Teens sold pins and pencils and held two bake sales to improve the state of their finances. The girls are constantly striving to uphold the purpose of the club which seeks to promote better understanding among the members and extends a helping hand to those in need. All was not work, however, as we see from the calendar of social events. Among this year's activities were participation in the casual and formal area Y-Teen dances, a joint meeting with the Senior Y-Teens at which Mr. Miley was the guest speaker, and the annual banquet. The projects in which the Sophomore Y-Teens rendered valuable service included sending five Care boxes at Christmas, combining with the Senior and Junior Y-Teens to aid activities at the Weiler Homes, and establishing a fund to be used as a scholarship for a deserving Senior of 1962. The girls in the Sophomore Y-Teens have shown this year what an asset they are to Libbey. It is certain that this fine record will continue throughout their junior and senior years in high school.

Freshman Y-Club

Among the many social organizations for girls at Libbey, the Freshman Y-Teens club is unique in the fact that it is the only society to which every freshman girl is eligible for membership. Giving the girls an opportunity to participate with vivacity and enthusiasm in the social life of our high school, this club has contributed immeasurably to the development of well-rounded personalities. Because of their retardation in organizing, the girls' activities were of necessity somewhat limited; however, they managed to hold several meetings second semester and to conduct a successful bake sale, the products of which were adjudged delicious by their many customers. The proceeds from this sale were used to provide ninety-two

Under the challenging and stimulating guidance of their advisers, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Lindeman, the members are receiving inspiration and encouragement to evolve those qualities which have in the past marked the Y-Teens as examples of Libbey at its best. As the years of their high school careers unfold, we feel certain that the Freshman Y-Teens will achieve maturation and Christian character so admired and stressed by all the Y-Teens organizations. Their officers for this year were Carol Georgia, president; Christine Conant, vice president; Penny Pendelton, secretary; Grett Bruggeman, treasurer; Barbara Shultz, chaplain; Karen Newman, sergeant-at-arms.

F. B. L. A.

The Future Business Leaders of America started their eventful year with an impressive induction at which the parents of the members were guests. Following their motto, "We learn to serve and serve to learn," F.B.L.A. students set out to demonstrate their business ability by engaging in many and varied activities, which included their annual candy sale held before Halloween, the sale of fruit cakes, potato chips, and shorthand dictionaries. They also sold savings stamps again this year in an effort to impress upon their classmates the importance of thriftiness.

Stepping into the social whirl of the year, the F.B.L.A. members held a Halloween party at Peace Lutheran Church. Sparkling smiles and fun-filled faces bespoke the gay times had by all at the Christmas party and the freshman roast. The latter, held at Walbridge Park, achieved its purpose which was to help the older students to become acquainted with prospective freshman members.

Special honors were attained by our school through the efforts of this club and their advisers. We were proud that one adviser, Mrs. Mary O. Houser, was appointed to the state education department's first advisory committee on business education. Last summer seven members were privileged to attend the National Convention in Washington, D.C., and in November several members drove to Dayton, Ohio, for the state convention. The annual banquet honoring their senior members provided a fitting climax for a rigorous but thoroughly enjoyable year which was made possible by the efforts of the advisers: Mrs. Hazel Flatz, Mrs. Mary O. Houser, Miss Allen, Mrs. Moody, Miss Haney, Mrs. Morgan, Mr. Needles, Mr. Good, and Mr. Rusie.

Since an ever-increasing American population has created the drastic need for more teachers, the Future Teachers of Libbey High School have maintained an active club life in an effort to become better acquainted with the responsibilities of teaching. In order to encourage members to pursue this profession, the club offered scholarships to its deserving members; money for these awards was earned through the diligent sales of bookcovers and portfolios. which the members held their Christmas party. During the year speakers were presented whose messages were of assistance to the Future Teachers. A field trip to the university and talks by newly appointed teachers helped to increase the members' knowledge of the pleasures and problems of teaching. The Future Nurses of America have again completed a memorable year, successful both in social activities and in the furtherance of their knowledge of nursing. Throughout the year the girls attended meetings at the Academy of Medicine and enjoyed the various open house programs which were sponsored by most of the hospitals in Toledo.

In December the girls went to William Roche Hospital to sing Christmas carols, thus bringing cheer to the patients and giving themselves a better understanding of the atmosphere of hospital life. Among their social activities this year were the induction tea, the Inter-Council School tea, a pancake supper at Riverside Hospital, and a visit to the Sunshine Children's Home. At the end of the year, a scholarship was given to a worthy senior girl who planned a career in the field of nursing.

Biology Club

The purpose of the Biology Club, "to carry out not only social ideas but also the objectives of real biology," has been fully realized this year. Activities, under the efficient leadership and guidance of Miss Lydia Fiedler and Miss Lasetta Pickard, included organizing a fall roast, selling tags, and decorating for the Lima football game. Challenging programs featured the projects which the members later entered in the Toledo Science Day Exhibit, held for the first time at Toledo University on March 12. A very successful year during which this organization was affiliated with the National Biology Exchange Clubs was brought to a close by a picnic. The following were officers: Nancy Robinson, president; Michael McCoy, vice-president; Barbara Fanaff, secretary; Bill Clemens, treasurer; Sharon Hayden, historian; and Sally Atkinson, reporter.

Libbey Leaders

As well befits an athletic organization of a school as active as Libbey, the purpose of the Libbey Leaders is to supervise capably the games in the girls' gym. Their aim, to develop wholesome attitudes of individuals in skills and games, was attained under the leadership of their earnest and hard-working officers: Becky Dauer, president; Kathleen Gaynor and Virginia Ogle, vice-presidents; Gloria Johnson, secretary; and Yvonne Rosebrock, treasurer. Under the guidance of Mrs. Billmaier and Mrs. Johnson, the Libbey Leaders enjoyed another successful and never-to-be-forgotten year.

Choir

Resplendent in their elegant blue and gold outfits, the choir tunefully fulfilled the visual promise of their robes by providing an inspirational and reverent background for the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs as well as for the Lenten services. Through the tireless and diligent efforts of their director, Mr. Harold McClure, the members learned to sing together harmoniously and to enjoy the satisfaction of a job well done.

Following the tradition of many years, our choir members were proud to be participants in the annual Spring Music Festival which was presented in the Peristyle of the Toledo Museum of Art. At the close of the school year our senior members melodiously performed several selections for the Baccalaureate and Commencement services and led their classmates with fervor and devotion in a last impressive rendition of "The Blue and Gold."

Libbey's band is an essential factor in raising the morale of the students and the team both at the football games and at mass meetings. The band also has every right to be proud of their capability so aptly displayed at the concert in the spring. Various parades throughout the year summoned our band to still greater activity which proved to be the source of much fun and pleasure and provided a deep sense of accomplishment for all. At the annual potluck the parents of the band members were the honored guests. The spring roast, held in conjunction with the orchestra, was fun for all members. Everyone showed his loyalty by contributing money to help make the band tag day a success; the proceeds of this project were used to finance their numerous trips and to buy uniforms and musical instruments.

Orchestra

The cultural outlook at Libbey was further enhanced this year by the continued efforts of the orchestra. During the year the orchestra gave two concerts, played for the parents at the annual Open House, and performed for the eighth graders in the spring. Combining efforts with the band, they held a roast at Walbridge Park and showed marked interest in all their other activities.

Handling every phase of Libbey's numerous activities with efficiency and effectiveness, the activities staff, under the direction of Mr. Charles Martin, fulfilled their purpose, "to promote interest and participation in school events throughout the school year." Important services performed by these aides include taking EDELIAN orders, operating the stationer's desk, selling tickets for various programs, and accommodating the students by supplying activities cards.

La Alianza Española

For the first time in several years a Spanish Club was reorganized for those who wished to further their interest in the Spanish language and their knowledge of all Spanish-speaking countries. La Alianza Española, as the club is called, draws its members from outstanding first year students and pupils who have successfully completed or are in the process of completing two years of the language. The club was able to fulfill its purpose, "the practice of the Spanish language and the familiarization of the members with the Spanish and Spanish-American customs," by delving into the history and background of a transplanted Old World culture.

Under the guidance of Miss Nancy Hadley, their adviser, they engaged in many activities throughout the year including an impressive induction and initiation ceremony for new members as well as a Christmas party at which tacos, a Spanish-American food, were served. In addition, the members took lessons in Spanish dancing, conducted a program concerning the Pan-American Union, and put on a play in Spanish.

Utamara Art Society

At last sincere and qualified art students will be able to find a suitable outlet for their interests and abilities. The new art club is to be a continuation of the former Utamara Art Club, and in this way will adhere to the fine traditions established by our previous art teacher, Miss Hazel E. Bartley. The original object of the Utamara Art Society was to study the life and work of the famous Japanese print maker, Utamara, whose exquisite art has often been compared to the music of Chopin. The present aim of the club is to develop intelligent appreciation of the work of contemporary artists and to encourage that appreciation in others outside the organization.

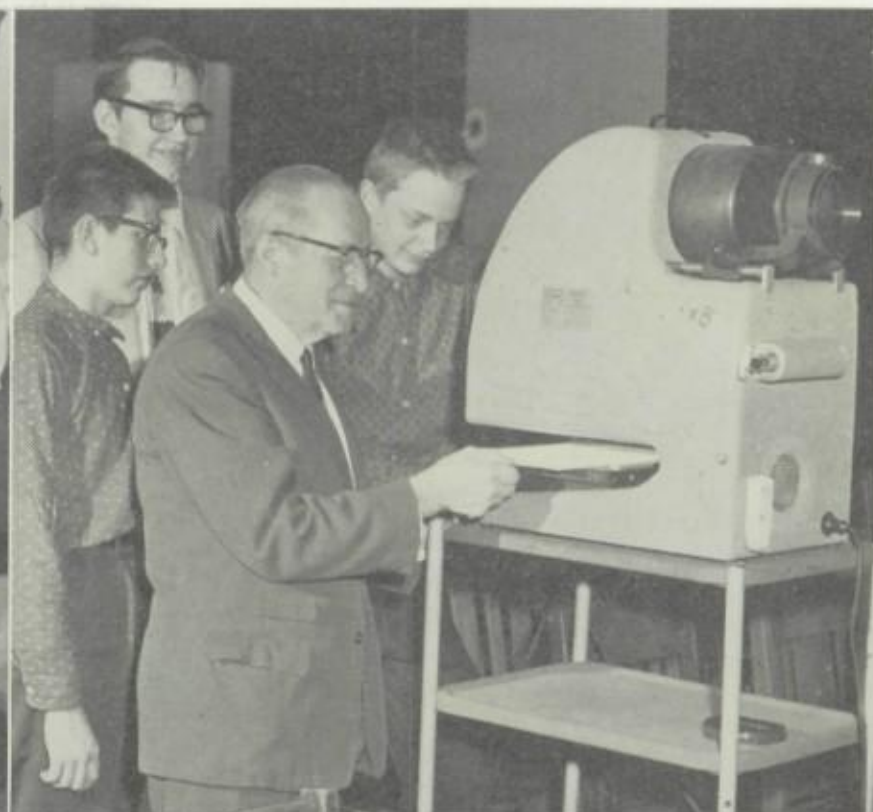

Under the direction of Mrs. Jeanne Pellegrino and Mrs. Jane Kenney, the club members strive to attain the good taste and harmony between spiritual quality and sound structure so characteristic of true art the world over.

1960 Queen Candidates

Carol Sue Ringel, Mary Schatz, Jane Suzor, Rita Neal, Nancy Monger, Joan Allen, Mary Sue Willinger, Betty Ann Smythe.

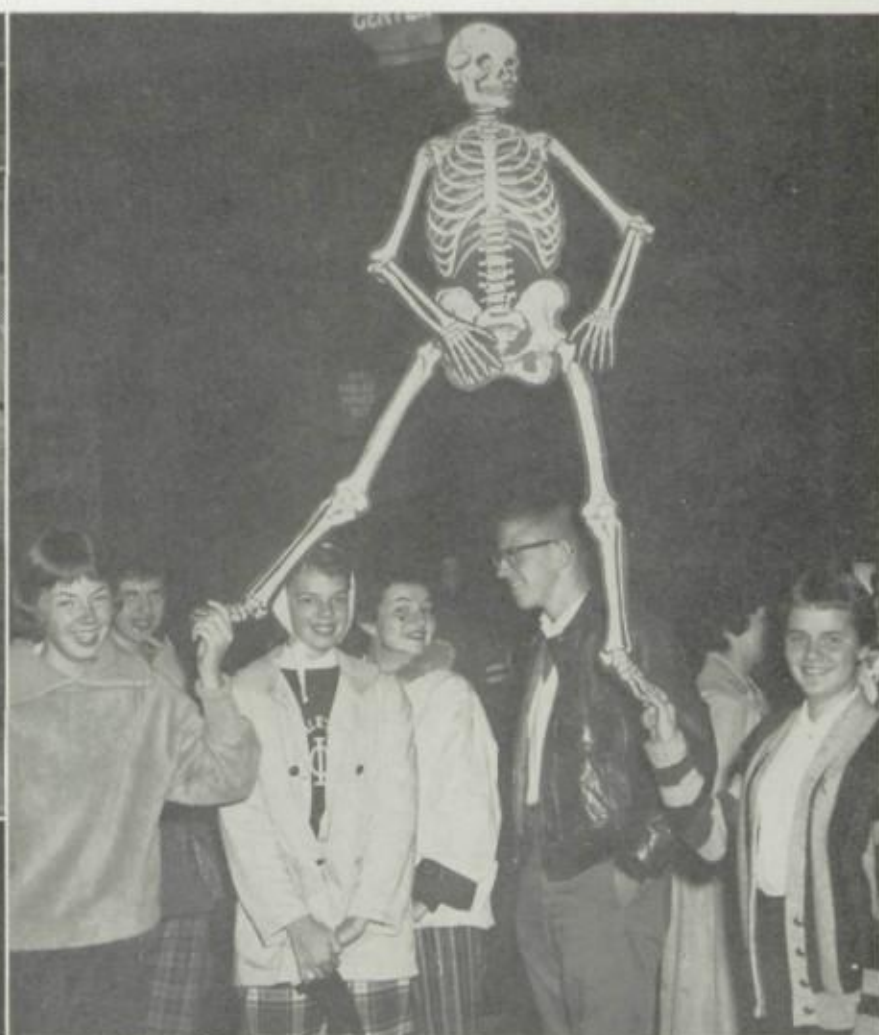

The aim of the library aides is to interest us in the pleasures of reading.
 Pat is treated by Barb and Carol in Mrs. Tanner's office.
 The deans' aides pose proudly for their picture.
 The main office aides cheerfully serve us.

Mr. Lincke and his projection aides make learning more fun.
 Our athletic tickets are sold by Mr. Needles and his smiling helpers.
 Show us how it works, Barb!

Sunny casts a disparaging eye on Lucky-Luck.
Business is booming!
Our high-stepping majorettes display their precision step.
Peries serve at Open House.

"Who invited Skinny to the Tri-Lit Roast?"
Energetic symbols of our school spirit.
"Now that's what I call cool."
"Look, Mom, no cavities!"

And now for our next trick . . .

"... and we will sing songs of joy and pride . . ."

Beauty reigns at Libbey in the persons of Rita and her court.

"Now, girls, we've got to cut down on our phone bill."

"What do you mean, what am I doing?"

Libbey honors Freshman newsboys.

Athletics

Although classes were a vital part of our student life, some of the most vivid memories we will recall are the streaking flash of the boys in blue and gold, the spirited cheers of the student body, the tense moments of suspense, the delirious joy of victory and the bitter pangs of defeat. True, our teams sometimes suffered defeat, but they also tasted the bitter dregs with the height of good sportsmanship. Nevertheless, whether on the gridiron, the cinders, the hardwood, or the diamond, our teams have had their share of victories. Special congratulations are due our city champ cross country team, the basketball team, and the track team. Yet most important is not the number of games won or lost, but the habits and characters fostered by our teams and coaches. For it is on the proving ground of athletic events that boys form habits which will rule their lives as adults.

ELECTRICITY

. . . a vital force in your future.

In the professions, in business and industry, in the home and on the farm versatile electricity will play an ever-increasing part in your life, because of this simple, economic fact:

You really get your money's worth when you spend it for electricity

The Cowboys gallop to victory over the Waite Indians.

The football players don formal clothes and expressions for their annual banquet.
Look! There I am!

The fathers of our football players brave the storm to receive recognition.

CIDER and DOUGHNUTS inspire the team at the Tri-Lit mass meeting.

Mr. Rupert, is it as bad as all that?
Get a load of those size thirteens!
Keep your eye on that ball!

ARE YOU SATISFIED?

Grownups know that personal grooming is important if you want to "get ahead". Teenagers sometimes forget to look at themselves objectively.

So that boys and girls could see themselves as others see them, a full-length mirror was installed in the main corridor of a high school in Buffalo, N. Y.

Boys checked shirttails and trouser lengths—even started wearing coats and ties. Girls stopped to tuck in blouses or rearrange their hair. Renewed pride came to this school—all because of a mirror!

When you buy a mirror, be sure it's made of L·O·F Parallel-O-Plate® glass, twin-ground for truer reflections and more freedom from distortion. You'll find a wide selection at your furniture, glass or department store.

A mirror is a "must" at school . . . at home . . . anywhere. Always check your appearance before going out. It's a good habit to form and others will notice.

CHORUS

Our Lib - bey col - ors

The first system of the chorus features a vocal melody in treble clef and piano accompaniment in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The vocal line begins with a quarter note on G4, followed by a half note on A4, and then a quarter note on B4. The piano accompaniment consists of a single quarter note on G3 in the bass clef, followed by a half note on A3, and then a quarter note on B3. The lyrics "Our Lib - bey col - ors" are written below the vocal line.

love; They fill our

The second system of the chorus continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a quarter note on C5, followed by a half note on D5, and then a quarter note on E5. The piano accompaniment consists of a single quarter note on C4 in the bass clef, followed by a half note on D4, and then a quarter note on E4. The lyrics "love; They fill our" are written below the vocal line. A large, dark, irregular shape obscures the piano accompaniment in the lower left portion of the system.
